

Our Scout Programs encourage the development of the following concepts:

- True proficiency in outdoor and life skills, such as first aid
- Participation in our personal achievement programs is on a non-competitive basis which enables our Scouts to learn more about themselves, their interests, explore careers and the world in which they live,
- Development of leadership skills,
- Service to the greater community through positive FUN opportunities which serve the community,
- Instilling in our Scouts the value of active listening, rather than just hearing,
- Development of creative and critical thinking,
- Acquisition of the skill of fostering friendship,

- Enhancement in our Scouts of the qualities of good character, and of the value that character counts,
- We promote strong families and strengthen family values,
- Development of responsible citizenship.
