

We are continuing to develop as many materials as possible and on an ongoing basis seek to increasingly improve the quality and quantity of those resources. As modern Scout Programs, we desire for our materials to appeal to our Scouts and Members. We encourage creativity and innovation and value when our Scouts and Members assist us by offering their suggestions for materials. We encourage those of our Scouts and Members who either have experience or just enjoy writing to help us create new materials or to edit preexisting materials.