Team Activities are activities are Scouts do as a team.

Some of them can also be done with other teams. The opportunity to spend time together and foster the skill of friendship is what team adventures are all about.