

We feature several stories specifically for Rising Star Scouts.

These are stories designed to entertain and educate. Our Rising Star Scouts become better acquainted with our Core Values and Defining Characteristics while reading these stories. We encourage parents to read these stories with their children and to discuss their meaning.